

Who is breathing the cleanest air?

Can you guess who breathed the cleanest air on their way to School. Follow the balloon strings to see if you were right.

A smiley balloon = cleaner air

Children who travel by car breathe dirtier air because pollution is sucked into cars through the vents. Even with the windows open the pollution cannot get away properly. Children walking outside breathe cleaner air because more pollution is blown away from them.